FIFTH ANNUAL ENCAMPMENT OF THE SONS OF VETERANS.

Camp Lloyd, Held in Mammoth Park the Past Week, was Well Attended.

Fine Weather and an Excellent Program Made the Encampment a Great Success.

Will Meet in Mammoth Park Next Year—Officers Elected and Installed.

The fifth annual encampment of the Sons of Veterans at Camp Lloyd, Mammoth Park, Reynoldsville, from August 3rd to 9th, was the largest encampment ever held by this Association. There was double the attendance of Sons of Veterans during the entire encampment to what there was in previous years. Fifty white tents were pitched in the park, which is an ideal place for an encampment. A number of Reynoldsville citizens, who have lived here for years, did not know there was such a beautiful level stretch of ground in the park as there is. The brow of the hill hides the park from public view along Main street, and while the Sons of Veterans' encampment was apparently out of town, yet they were within the borough limits.

The Sons of Veterans came to Camp Lloyd Wednesday and by Thursday morning a large number of the boys were in camp, where most of them remained until Sunday evening and Monday morning. They did not break camp until yesterday.

Thursday evening the Sons of Veterans paraded up Main street to park, headed by the Keystone band. After the parade an address of welcome was delivered by Rev. Dr. A. J. Meek, pastor Baptist church, and responded to by Chaplain W. S. McCurdy, of Pittsburg. The Keystones band gave a concert. There were two or three thousand people at camp that evening, and every evening during the encampment there were large crowds present.

Friday members of Companies E, I and K of 148th Pa. Vol., held a reunion at Camp Lloyd and the W. R. C. held a picnic in camp that afternoon.

At 3:00 p. m. Friday Rev. N. L. Brown, of Pittsburg, Chaplain of Fourth Regt. S. V. R., lectured for two hours on "Gettysburg." It was a fine lecture.

Saturday afternoon Prof. S. C. Hepler, of New Bethlehem delivered an excellent lecture on "Nuggets of Gold."

At the camp fire Saturday evening Lawyer Clement Flynn, of this place, made a speech that was enjoyed by the large audience.

It is estimated that there were between five and six thousand people at Camp Lloyd Sunday afternoon and there was also a large crowd present Sunday evening. Chaplain McCurdy preached at 2:30 p. m. and 8:00 p. m. Sunday.

At a business meeting of the Encampment Association Sunday the following officers were elected for next year: President, Captain Shannon, of Punxsutawney; Vice President, Captain LeRoy, of Brookville; Secretary and Treasurer, Captain Wadding, of Brookville. The officers were installed by Division Commander Lloyd, in whose honor the camp was named this year. The boys were so well pleased with Mammoth Park for encampment grounds that they decided to hold the encampment at the same place next year.

Alvin and John Wiant, young violinists of New Bethlehem, who were visiting in town during the encampment, appeared on the platform several times and entertained the people with violin duets and solos.

The park was lighted at night by electricity.

The ferris wheel and merry-go-round did a good business every evening.

The livermen gathered in some "cots of the realm" hauling people to and from camp. Over $22.00 was collected in ten cent fares on one wagonette Sunday afternoon and evening.

The weather was delightful during the entire encampment, only one small shower.

Next year water and gas will be piped into the park which will make it more convenient.

The camp was in darkness Monday night on account of the Electric Light Company not having water to run the power plant. However, the young people seemed to have just as much fun as they would have had with the park lighted.

Sandy Valley.
Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Irvin, of DuBois, visited relatives here and at Pardus last week.

Sandy Valley and Pardus were well represented at the S. of V. encampment the past week.

Miss Nerva Klontz spent last Sabbath with her cousin, Mrs. Della Raybuck, near Allens Mills.

Mrs. Cora Riggs, of Chicago, and Mrs. Robert Berns, of DuBois, are visiting relatives at this place.

Messrs. Eli and Ora Johnson, of Brookville, spent the Sabbath with their aunt, Mrs. Steve Salagiver, at this place.

Come to the dance next Monday night. Where? At Fox hall. Also at Pardus one week from to-night, Wednesday.

A festival will be held in the grove near the church next Friday evening for the benefit of the Rev. Conway. All are invited to attend.

Mrs. W. S. Bracken, who has been visiting at Patton station the past two weeks, returned to her home at this place last Saturday evening.

Homer M. Sherwood, of Westport, Cal., and Lillie L. Schugars, of Berwindsdale, Pa., visited their brother, H. A. Sherwood, and family, at this place the past week. Mr. Sherwood has been absent from these parts eighteen years and finds many prominent changes have taken place throughout the country in that time.

The Spirit Serenaded.

The Reynoldsville brass band, which was one of the half dozen excellent music producing organizations which discoursed melody for the A. O. H. reunion last Thursday, gave a concert in front of the Spirit office in the evening which was listened to by a large crowd of appreciative people and further established the claim of Reynoldsville to the possession of one of the best bands in the state. A number of high class selections were rendered in a manner that was mighty agreeable to the ear as well as creditable to the musicians. The leader, Richard Ramsey, although regularly employed as a coal miner, has found time to make himself a most proficient instructor and leader, so much so that it is often said that "Dick" Ramsey can take any kind of material and make a good band of it. And the truth of this assertion is proven by the fact that Reynoldsville has had a first class band whenever Mr. Ramsey took a notion it should have one.—Punxsutawney Spirit.

OLD FRIENDS FALL OUT.

The day that first we met
I had a bank account, John,
I would I had it yet.
Your warmth it was engaging,
Your spirit thrilled me through;
I drew out my account, John,
And gave it all to you.

John Barleycorn, John Barleycorn,
The day that first we met,
I had a good, clear eye, John,
I would I had it yet.
You've rimmed it round with red, John,
You've handwork it shows,
And Ibertles fantastic
You've taken with my nose.

John Barleycorn, John Barleycorn,
The day that first we met,
I had a steady hand, John,
But in the years some how
You've put me on your back, John,
You are the master now.

John Barleycorn, John Barleycorn,
I thought you were my friend,
But now you've thus betrayed me
Our friendship's at an end.
Of wealth, of looks, of health, John,
You've secured not to rub,
And worst of all, this day, John,
This day you took my job.

The Good Old Way.

A severe cold or attack of la grippe is like a fire, the sooner you combat it the better your chances are to overpower it. But few mothers in this age are willing to do the necessary work required to give a good old-fashioned reliable treatment such as would be administered by their grandmothers, backed by Boebee's German Syrup, which was always liberally used in connection with the home treatment of colds and is still in greater household favor than any known remedy. But even without the application of the old fashioned aids German Syrup will cure a severe cold in quick time. It will cure colds in children or grown people. It relieves the congested organs, allays the irritation, and effectively stops the cough. Any child will take it. It is invaluable in a household of children. Trial size bottle, 25c; regular size, 75c. For sale by H. Alex Stoke.
